State of Illinois, Schuyler County

On this 3rd day of September A.D. 1832 personally appeared before the County Commissioners Court of Schuyler County, James Lanman a resident of the said County of Schuyler in the State of Illinois, aged 81 years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed June the 7th 1832. That he enlisted in the Army of the United States at Charleston South Carolina in July 1776, as orderly Sergeant and served in the first Regiment of Rifle men in the South Carolina line for one year under Captain John Hampton, Presley Hampton Ensign Mark Jackson, Colonel Yougher [sic, Huger ?] General Williams and Major William Henderson and was marched in the fall of 1776 to the Cherokee nation and was then the Battle near Valley Towns at the mouth of Silver Creek on the Tennessee River, from there marched to a Fort on a River called Touglar [Tugaloo ?], which empties into the Savannah River, from thence to Charleston, thence to Sunbury in the State of Georgia, thence back to Charleston where he was discharged. He enlisted a 2nd time as orderly Sergeant on the 3rd day of March 1781 near a town in North Carolina called Hillsborough under Captain Tillman Dickson [sic, Tilghman Dixon] of the Horse troops for 2 years and was attached to a troop of Horse under Captain William Butler, Grigsby Ensign David Hart in the first Regiment of Horse commanded by Colonel William Henderson under General Nathaniel Green [sic, Nathanael Greene]: He was in the Battle of Guilford and from thence marched to South Carolina and was in the Battle of the Eutaw Springs, in which he was wounded in the thigh, and General Henderson was also wounded, and both were taken to a widow Nelsons on Santee River, where he remained until he recovered of his wound, and was there discharged by General Henderson about 2 months before his time of service was out. He sent his discharge to Absalom Tatem a deputy paymaster at Halifax in North Carolina for his pay, who kept it. The paymaster's name was Mumford. He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension Roll of any agency of any State. Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid

S/ James Lanman

State of Illinois, Schuyler County

Personally appeared before me the undersigned a Justice of the peace in and for said County, James Lanman who being duly sworn according to law, deposeth and saith that by reason of old age and the consequent loss of memory, he cannot state the precise time of his entering the service or leaving it, nor can he make a more particular statement than is contained in the foregoing declaration, that it is out of his power to make proof of his last service, by 2 witnesses, as is required by the regulations of the department. That he was discharged for his first tour of service by Major William Henderson, which discharge was burnt up in his house.

That he was born in the year 1752 in the County of Fairfax in the State of Virginia, that he has no record of his age, that a record of his age was in a Bible by his half Brother who did live in Muhlenberg County in Kentucky but is now dead. That when called into service he lived at Charleston South Carolina that after the revolutionary war he removed to Caswell County North Carolina, thence he removed to Washington County Kentucky, thence to Indiana, from thence he removed to Illinois where he now resides. That he was a regular soldier. That he was acquainted with Major Wade Hampton, General Nathanael Greene, and with Colonel Archibald Lytle and General Marion and further saith not.

Sworn to & subscribed before me this 18th day of June 1833. S/ James Lanman
